Jockeys must have some throat affection, for they always talk horse.

If time is really money, any man ought to be worth his wait in gold. It is a curious fact that left-handed persons hear best with the left ear.

Ohio's first colored jury found a ver dict of "Not guilty, 'cause he didn't done it." "Clara," asked Tom, "what animal dropped from the clouds?" "The rain, dear," was the reply. "Love in a cottage" is all very well when you own the cottage and have money coming in to keep it warm.

An unlucky person remarked, on being asked what he cleared on a certain speculation, "Nothing but my pockets."

A contemporary tells the ladies that they must "take heart." That's just what they have been doing for ages

It is difficult to understand why a wife never asks her husband if the doors are all locked until he is snugly covered up in bed.

"I think the turkey has the advan-tage of you," said the landlady to the inexpert boarder who was carving. "Guess it has, mum, in age."
"Do try and talk a little common sense," said a young lady to her visitor.
"Ah, but wouldn't that be taking an unfair advantage of you?" Rev. Dr. Fowler says that the man who at baptism does not go deep enough into the water to get his pocket book under has not been dipped enough to save him.

Snodgrass, hearing a man boast that he and Daniel Webster once stopped over night at the same house, remarked "Entertainment for man and beast."

The paragraphists have discovered the best method of heating a street car. "Carry a woman half a block further than she wants to go. It will be hot enough."
"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown" is an absurd expression, because no sensible king ever goes to bed with his crown on. He always hangs it on the back of a chair with his vest. A Jerseyman was once thrown one hundred and fitty feet by an express train, and when he picked himself up he looked around for his hat and re-marked, "Well, if I don't find that hat

We have been asked repeatedly for information concerning the appointment and duties of census enumerators. All addressed to E. J. Udell, Rantoul, Champaign county, Illinois, he being the supervisor. Persons who are appointed enumerators must be good penmen and also reside in the district which they desire to enumerate. These districts will be composed of territory containing not more than 4,000 inhabitants and may consist of several towns or parts of a town. The compensation to the enumerators is an follows: Two cents for each living inhabitant, two cents for each death reported; ten cents for each farm; fifteen cents for each manufactory, which is to be in full for all services and no mileage or traveling expenses. In heu of the above the enumerator may be paid a sum in full. THE Ottumwa Courier notes the swarming of a lot of hees at Dahlonega a few days since, and wants to know who ever before heard of hees swarming in the middle of January in Central Iowa.

Similar paragraphs appear nearly every spring. It is safe to say that the writer is always mistaken, in this latitude bees never swarm before April and in most cases not before June. I have had from two to seventy-five colonies for the past fourteen years. I have never had a swarm before June except in the spring of 1878, In that year I had about fifty colonies and the first swarm came out on the 29th of April and another on May 15th. No others is altogether a different thing. Colonies parent reason. I have never lost a colony in either way and therefore conclude that such instances are quite rare. Of course, when a colony leaves the hive the appearance is exactly the E. A. GASTMAN. ceived.

THE following extract from a sermon preached by Sydney Smith to her Majesty Queen Victoria on her acces sion to the throne is, thinks the London Truth, worthy of recalling: 'Extinguish in your heart the fiendish love of military glory from which your sex does not necessarily exempt you, and to which the wickedness of flatterers may urge you. Say upon your death bed, I have made few orphans in my reign; I have made few widows. My object has been peace. I have used all the might of my character and all the power of my situation to check the irascible passions of mankind and turn them to the arts of honest industry.'

QUINCY is in a bad way financially. She has a railroad debt of $1,800,000, apon which she is utterly unable to pay the interest. Hanting for a Candidate. Champaign Gazette

A small coterie of politicians in this district are making frantic efforts to hunt out a candidate for congress in opposition to Mr. Cannon. What their particular grievances are we do not know, but probably some real or supposed slight, or aspiration nipped in the oud. Politicians are usually so consti tuted they imagine that on their realization of pet schemes rests the success of the party. Such is not always the case. Besides this, they frequently forget that the interests of others are to be considered as well as their own. The failure of a member of congress to secure the appointment of some conatituent to un office is usually at the bottom of the dissatisfaction. Mr. Cannon has been very fortunate in securing the appointment of a large number of his constituents to various public offices, and that he has failed occasionally should not be charged against him as a misdemeanor.

Mr. Cannon has faithfully represented the people of this district, and from the position of a humble member has worked up until he now has a position on the most important committee in the house of representatives. He has voted against all the raids made on the treasury by subsidy-seeking schemers, and became integers in the political questions of the day. Mr. Cannon is now in Mr Blaine, because there is but one speech does not always indicate intelligence, honesty, sobriety or solidity. Let the hunt go on. It is the privilege of every man in the district to run for congress if he feels like it; but in our opinion no other mun in the district possesses the confidence of the people, democrats as well as republicans, to a greater degree than Mr. Cannon, and we doubt whether any one of the prespective candidates can come within reaching distance of the nomination with a ten-foot pole. - Champoign plication of electrical science to tele graphy is reported by the Scientific Imerican, which says that the Western Union Telegraph company has begun substituting dynamo electric machines for the batteries hitherto in use in its New York office. They will consume coal hereafter, instead of zine and acid, in generating the currents used in telegraphing, and twelve tons of machinery will replace, at New York alone, seventy two tons of battery cells. The cost of generating the electricity will be greatly reduced. After the failure of many efforts to use dynamic machines in generating electric currents for telegraphic use, success is said now to have been attained by employing several Siemen's machines connected in series and having their magnets excited by a current supplied by a single dynamic machine. The arrangement is similar to that used by Edison in generating the electricity which lights his electric lamps. The new system has been tested in a San Francisco office for several appeared before June. The truth is months, and the set of machines now at that what these observers call swarming work in New York are said to be giving til she fell an easy victim to typhoid satisfaction. Sweet William Curtis turnishes the brain power for their opposition. They belong to the "I am holier than thou" clement, which is all right and loyal to the party, so long as that ele ment gets the offices. Their watchword is the same old story, and their platform reads:

They organized themselves in the New York campaign last fall as purists, whose duty should be to scratch the names of leading men from the ticket if they didn't happen to suit the angel who presides over Harper's Weekly. They were called "Young Scratchers," but their scratching didn't amount to much. Now they are proposing the same thing again. But they will probably scratch out before election. They are unanimous against Grant or Blaine.

ALL QUIET IN MAINE.

CLINTON, ILL., Jan. 30.—Last night about 10 o'clock, W. H. Harrison, Circuit Clerk of this county, was found to have fallen short in the neighborhood of $2,000 in the funds of his office. The Board of Supervisors have been making a careful investigation since last December of his books and papers, and early this morning the Circuit Clerk resigned his official position in favor of his securities, who elected James Deland to take charge of the books until the March term of the Circuit Court, when Judge Lacy will appoint an officer to fill the unexpired term. The subject is the who have been indorsing and shetting back and silver dollar ever since they theme of conversation, and has caused no little excitement, as all parties are highly connected. Harrison was servng his second term when he resigned.

The ability to make a good ing of disaffection and war spirit had for some time past been gaining the ascendency with them. He said that some of the scouts had previous to the Thornburgh fight, been warned that the Indians would attack the troops at or near Bear river, and that the general opinion among the people of Colorado was that the outbreak was premeditated.

> > Atgusta, Jan. 30.-In the house to-day, resolutions were introduced extending "grateful acknowledgments to the senate and house of representatives of Wisconsin for their appreciation of the gravity and importance of events, not only to ourselves but to the whole country, through which the people of this state have just passed.'

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—On the heels of the revival of speculation as to the Baldwin homicide last March, comes the announcement of the death of Mrs. Hattie Baldwin, wife of Harry Baldwin, the victim of that mysterious tragedy, at an early hour this morning. They had been married scarcely three months when the husband was shot in the street by some one whose identity has not yet been discovered. The grief at the loss of her husband was increased by the report that his killing was the upon her so that she gradually sank unchild, only 3 months old.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Jan. 30.-Today a runaway couple from Crawfordsville, Ind., were arrested by City Marshal Miller upon a telegram from Thomas Collins, the father of the girl, Jennie Collins, a well-known and beautiful young society belie of Crawfordsville, who eloped with a young man named J. H. Simpson, on Thursday, from that city. After arriving in this city they attempted to procure a marriage license, but the Clerk refused to grant one for the reason the girl was not of the necessary age prescribed by the law of Illinois. The young lady's father telegraphed that he would arrive in Bloomington on the early morning train to morrow to take his daughter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 .- The senate committee on census met to-day and received reports from the several subcommittees on the nominations of census supervisors. The appointments were reported back favorably from the sub-committee on the Western states, except three for Illinois, one for Iowa and one for Tennessee, which are held by the sub-committee for further inquiry. Senator Kernan, who has charge of the nominations for New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, did not report on them to-day, mor were any of the southern appointments reported upon. It was agreed by common consent that all nominations from the sub-committees to-day, in regard to none of which there is any question of personal fitness of the nominee, shall be immediately reported back to the senate, with a recommendation for confirmation, but at the same time several democratic members of the committee took the ground that one-half the census supervisors

be selected from the democratic party. and they therefore reserved the right to disregard to-day's action of the committee when the nominations come up for consideration in the senate. The indications are strong that a movement will be made in the senate to halve up all the census nominations for the present, with a view to forcing an equal division of these appointments between the two great political parties.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30 .- In view of the newspaper charges that Mr. Halatead, of the Commercial, had started the story that Gen. Grant's friends had arranged to withdraw his name as a candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Halstead says there is a wide difference between statement and the statement that Grant will not be a contestant for the candidacy. Halstead says he is called on to confirm a report said to be traced to him that he said that Geo. W. Childs told him he had a letter from Gen. Grant declining to be a candidate for the Presidency. There is no question of veracity between Mr. Halstead and Mr. Childs, for Mr. Childs never said anything of this sort, and Mr. Halstead never said that he did. Mr. Halstead says further that he was informed in Philadelphia that there would be authority for it that Grant was not a candidate, and must not be pressed into the contest as such; that the authorization would be distinct, the declaration decisive, and made in good time. He been charged.

Washington, Jan. 30.-The Senate exodus committee examined again Charles H. Otug, who, under cross examination, admitted that Mendenhall was the only person in Washington whom he had heard advise the exodus for political reasons. He believed all the colored people of intelligence in North Carolina opposed the exodus. F. A. Bonitz, editor of a Goldsboro,

N. C., Democratic paper, testified it was difficult to account for the exodus. It certainly was not on account of oppression or of their condition or their reatment in the courts. After some further testimony the committee adjourned.

BEYTLISH BOYS

Fire Young Heedlame Arrested and Jailed at Vagrants-Causes Whish Led to the Justifiable Arrest.

For several months past Superintendent

Gastman and the teachers of the fourth ward school have been annoyed beyond endurance by the vicious vandalism, howl-ings and insulting language of a gang of young dime novel reading hoodlumsdevilish boys who have congregated day times; and also, to tease and insult the teachers and school misses. The ages of said boys range from 10 to 15 years, and they do not attend that school or any other-simply congregating there to have a time and make disturbances in and out of school. In warm weather they laid cently large crowd out to hear him at the around on the grass, sunning themselves, entering the grounds at recess hours, fighting and scratching, and when cold weather came they built fires near the railroad, and in the ravine south of the building, where they remained during each succeeding day plotting mischief which cropped in ways too numerous, scandalizing and loathsome to mention. They incited a rebellious spirit among the boys in the school building, which caused a boy (whose name it is not necessary to mention) to draw a knife on his teacher THE annual meeting and election of and Sup't Gastman; that caused another officers of the Peoria Typographical Un- boy to gather an armful of his schoolmates' slates and throw them hatefully at his teacher as she left the room on one occasion; that caused many pupils to stay away from school without excuse; that caused otherwise orderly pupils to become bold and insulting during school hours; and in various other ways has their vicious work manifested itself from time to time. New outhouses were built within the school grounds, painted, and left in good trim; a few days passed, and on the doors of the closets appeared vile, obscene words cut into the wood with a penknife. The superintendent has reason to believe that this was done by devilish boys out of the school, in order that some of the boys in the school might be punished for it-all for the fun of the thing. Going THE following individuals have been home from school girls have been followsummoned to appear at Springfield on ed by these unprincipled boys, and in Tuesday, Feb. 3, to testify in the United various ways insulted by acts and insinu- ing an officer; verdict set aside, and mo-States district court on behalf of John ating words.
